	1.9.2003: Shri Rakesh Jha learned counsel for the petitioner. Ms. Sharmila Singhai Dy. GA takes notice for the respondents. Heard. By this writ petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India the petitioner has challenged the order dated 21.7.2003 whereby the petitioner has been transferred from Pratappur to Bastar. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that only two years are left in attaining the age of superannuation and the place to which the petitioner has been transferred is 600 kms. away from the present place of posting of the petitioner which is very inconvenient for the petitioner. He further submitted that as per the Government policy normally the employees, who are left with only two years of service , should not be transferred. Having heard the counsel for the parties and considered the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner is allowed to make a detailed representation to respondent No.1 within 10 days from today. The respondents within 30 days from the date of the receipt of the representation filed by the petitioner shall decide the same in an objective manner and pass an appropriate order. It is made clear that till the decision of the representation of the petitioner he should not be relieved from the present place of posting. With the observations made above the petition is disposed of. In view of this order IA No. 7792/2003 stands disposed of. Sd/- L.C. Bhadoo Judge
